

Bharat Shiromani Award for Corporate Leadership conferred on Mrs. Vinita Singhania

Mrs. Vinita Singhania, Managing Director, JK Lakshmi Cement Ltd. was awarded the Bharat Shiromani Award for the year 2006, for her commendable work in the sector of business and industry. Honorable Governor of Haryana, Dr. A.R Kidwai, and Governor of Goa, Mr. S.C. Jamir, conferred the award on Mrs. Singhania at an award function held at New Delhi on 29th may 2007.

Bharat Shiromani, which was instituted in the year 1977, honors men and women of Indian origin for their outstanding achievements in their chosen fields. Mrs. Singhania is the only woman to receive the award in this particular segment.

Speaking on this occasion Mrs. Singhania said, "It is an honor to receive Bharat Shiromani award and I am pleased to be among the recipients and, the people of credibility, name and fame. To my mind, the woman entrepreneur is a word of the past. The woman have demonstrated their ability and skill in all fields and entrepreneurship certainly cannot be left out".

Mrs. Singhania in her chequered career has exhibited an exemplary transparent decision-making process, a down to earth approach in tackling problems and has implemented numerous innovative HR policies, which has helped the company grow and earn various laurels.