

JK Lakshmi Cement Ltd, Sirohi is first cement company in India who has been awarded as "leaders award" in "large" category for " green manufacturing excellence award 2011" instituted by "Frost & Sullivan", Bangalore, which was received by Shri P.L. Mehta, Vice President (commercial) and Shri N.K. Maheshwari , General Manager (development) from hon'ble chief guest Dr. Ajay Mathur, Director General-bureau of energy efficiency (Government of India) & a member of the prime minister' s council on climate change and Shri Anand Rangachary (managing director- south asia & middle east -manufacturing & process consulting)at a function held on 29th April, 2011 at the Royal Orchid Hotel, Mumbai.

This award has been given to JK Lakshmi out of 44 applicant organizations based on the assessment conducted by Frost & Sullivan assessment team at plant site & subsequently whetted by jury of green manufacturing excellence awards 2011 for its excellence in implementing green practices showing the organization's best practices for ecological responsiveness such as energy conservation, materials utilization, water conservation, emissions reduction, effluents, reduction, waste utilization, product & services, biodiversity & general compliance and ultimately business results.

Recently, JK Lakshmi has put up various innovative / environment friendly projects such as:

1. Waste heat recovery 12 mw power plant i.e. a saving of 55000 m.t. of co2 per annum
2. Installation of flyash drying system
3. Installation of biomass handling system i.e. "replacement of fossil" fuel by biomass
4. Installation of additional 18 mw power plant